To whom it may concern,

It is with great pleasure that I write to you in recommendation of Ampsure Electrical.

I have had the privilege of their service for the last two years and can highly recommend them.

In short:

- They are professional and always a pleasure to deal with.
- They keep to their appointments on time.
- They give feedback and quotes quickly.
- Their price offering is by far the best.
- Their manner in which they conduct their work is excellent! Clean and tidy and they are always willing to go the extra mile.
- And they get the job done!

Our industry outsources many aspects of our business and it's very rare to find a supplier who pays the kind of person attention to maintaining lasting relationships which are based on trust, service and genuine interests in our business. Ampsure Electrical is the kind of partner you want in your home or business!

Sincerely,

Nico Willemse
